

COVID- 19 / CORONAVIRUS UPDATE:

As an Essential Service Business

We are Open & Fully Staffed

As the world continues to address the quickly changing landscape, we wanted to personally reach out to you. Through prior, purposeful continual planning, AC Experts Cooling & Heating, Tempe will remain open for business and anticipates being able to fulfill all appointment and service requests without interruption while providing a safe environment for our customers and employees.

Heating and Air Conditioning contractors have been classified as essential personnel and we will continue to operate and are available to work during this time.

We have close relationships with our top partner suppliers, and all are working at capacity to alleviate potential disruption. Inventory levels are continually being monitored and replenished as fast as possible.

Rest Assured that AC Experts is well positioned to keep our employees and communities safe, while continuing to provide exceptional home services for our customers. We continue to meet daily to monitor this evolving situation and we pledge to provide additional updates should there be any new developments.

Should you need to schedule a service, please call us at 480-386-6980 or schedule online.

Thank you, and please stay safe & healthy.
